The defendant is facing a new sentencing in front of a different judge on a separate case and, after a hearing or in writing, the defendant and the original sentencing judge consent to supervision being transferred to the other judge; or
- (4)

There exist extraordinary circumstances, including but not limited to: death, incapacitation or retirement, which preclude the presence of the original sentencing judge.

Comment:
Local Rule 700(A) tracks Pa.R.Crim.P. 700(A).

Pa.R.Crim.P. 700 also governs sentencings that result from a violation of probation or parole. See Comm. v. McNeal, 120 A.3d 313 (Pa. Super. 2015). Accordingly, Local Rule 700(B) flows from Pa.R.Crim.P. 700(B), which invites promulgation of local rules to expand the circumstances under which transfers from one judge to another may be made. Local Rule 700(B) reflects the recognition that transfers are appropriate under a variety of circumstances, including where a defendant has the opportunity to enter one of the First Judicial District’s reentry programs or in order to consolidate a violation hearing in front of the “back judge” with the sentencing for a new case in front of a different judge.

Note: For the purposes of this Rule, the term “writing” includes electronic mail.
