

2018 WRAP UP CONTINUED

Gilham earns his first All-CACC accolade, garnering Second Team honors with the program's third best single-season batting average (.373, 50-for-134). Batting in the cleanup role, he totaled 24 runs and 34 RBI with a .433 slugging percentage that included six doubles and a triple. Gilham drew 24 walks to help him to a .480 on-base percentage and three stolen bases (3-for-7, .429). Behind the plate, he offered a .985 fielding percentage (201 total chances, 180 putouts, 18 assists, 3 errors) and threw out eight base runners. Gilham earned CACC Weekly Honor Roll recognition on April 2.

Owens was selected as an Arthur Ashe Jr. Sports Scholar Baseball First Team performer during the course of an outstanding senior season that concluded with .340 (51-for-150) batting average, a .443 on-base percentage, and a .547 slugging percentage. He drew 24 walks and totaled 15 extra base hits - including a program all-time, single-season high of seven home runs - to finish the year with 34 runs and 36 RBI. Owens was one of two Griffins to start all 44 contests (44gp-44gs) and he finished the season fifth in the CACC for stolen bases (22-of-24, .916). All-time, Owens ranks among the program's top-10 in 24 statistical categories, including home runs (T2nd, 9), hit-by-pitch (T2nd, 21), base-on-balls (3rd, 71), sacrifice flies (T3rd, 8), on-base percentage (4th, .402), doubles (T4th, 27), RBI (5th, 83), triples (T5th, 6), slugging (7th, .433), batting average (8th, .291), total bases (8th, 202), runs (9th, 86), and games played (154).

Nazario and junior second baseman Ameer Uzzell (Levittown, Pa.) offered solid seasons; the former finished with a .299 (32-for-107) batting average, a .385 on-base percentage, and a .505 slugging percentage that generated 17 runs and 26 RBI, while the latter batted .282 (51-for-181) and connected for a team-high 12 doubles that helped him contribute 37 runs and 19 RBI. Uzzell also finished third on the team in stolen bases with 17 (17-for-20, .850). Senior utility Evan Grimes (Norristown, Pa.) was recognized with the Coach's Award.

Freshmen, Barletta (54AB, .333 BA/.394 OBP/.333 SLG), Dietz (61AB, .262/.292/.377), Healey and centerfielder John Contoudis (Jenkintown, Pa.) made significant contributions as well. Healey took over at third base (36gp-25gs), offering 16 runs and 12 RBI on a .288 (23-for-80) batting average, a .400 on-base percentage, and a .313 slugging percentage. Contoudis made 35 starts (38gp-35gs) between right field and center field, offering a .275 (36-for-131) batting average, a .324 on-base percentage, a .427 slugging percentage, and 14 stolen bases (14-for-20, .700) to produce 25 runs and 14 RBI.

Bethel headlined a pitching staff that combined for a 5.18 ERA and a 249/147 strikeout to walk ratio. He logged 43.0 innings on the mound despite only making two starts (16 appearances -2 games started); Bethel allowed 15 earned runs on 45 hits and eight walks, while striking out 31. Junior Matthew Kress (Lansdale, Pa.) was the Griffins' top starting pitcher, reporting a 6-4 record, three complete games, and a 4.40 ERA in 10 starts (11app-10gs). He allowed 29 earned runs on 67 hits and 14 walks, while striking out 38 in 59.1 innings pitched. In his first season as a starting pitcher, Cattai finished 4-1 (7app-7gs) with a 4.69 ERA. He allowed 25 earned runs on 49 hits and 15 walks, while striking out 30 in 48.0 innings or work.

2018 WRAP UP

Philadelphia, Pa. - (7/10/2018) - A fifth 20-win season (23-21, 18-14 CACC) in 11 years, qualified Chestnut Hill College for their eighth Central Atlantic Collegiate Conference (CACC) Championship Tournament appearance in the last nine seasons. Senior second baseman Alec Craig (Hammonton, N.J.) led the campaign with all-region recognition from the Division II (D2) Conference Commissioners Association (CCA) (2nd Team), the American Baseball Coaches Association (ABCA)/Rawlings (2nd Team), and the National Collegiate Baseball Writers Association (NCBWA) (3rd Team, Honorable Mention). As one of the CACC's top defensive teams, Chestnut Hill College also received significant offensive contributions from senior first baseman Matthew Owens (Cherry Hill, N.J.), junior catcher Eric Gilham (Deptford, N.J.), and sophomore designated hitter Erving Nazario (Hamilton, N.J.), who carry plus-300 batting averages and knocked in at least 25 runs so far this season. Freshman Billy Bethel (Yardley, Pa.) headlined a pitching staff that matched the program's single-season mark of nine complete games with a 6-2 record, a save, and a 3.14 earned run average (ERA).

Chestnut Hill College opened the 2018 season with a 4-5 run through a challenging Florida schedule that included contests versus Florida Memorial University, Stonehill College, Barry University, Florida National University, and Palm Beach Atlantic University. The Griffins first split the first of two games (L, 4-10 and W, 7-1) with the Lions on March 3, before suffering a 9-6 defeat in Sunday's (March 4) rubber match. The competitive contest spurred the Scarlet and Gold on for wins in three of their next four games as they defeated the Skyhawks by a 10-4 margin on March 5 and the Panthers by a 13-4 and 5-4 measures on March 8.

A return home to cold and rainy weather caused some early-season rescheduling, but the Griffins were able to build steam in late-March - with a split at Felician University (W, 7-2, and L, 1-3, on March 28) and sweep of the University of the Sciences (USciences) (W, 5-3, and W, 5-3, on March 31) - and filled out their record with a 14-10 April. Versus the Golden Falcons, Gilham (4-for-4, 2 runs, 3 RBI) and Nazario (3-for-4, 3 RBI) both enjoyed a good game at the plate and provided plenty of run support for junior Dino Cattai (Philadelphia, Pa.) (8.0 innings pitched, 8 hits, 2 earned runs, 4 strike outs) in a 7-2 game-one victory. Against the Devils, freshman Andrew Dietz (Warrington, Pa.) plated the winning run in both 5-3 finals, using a seventh-inning, pinch-hit double to decide the opener and a two-run, sixth-inning single to separate the Griffins in the nightcap. Dietz was 3-for-5 with 3 runs-batted-in (RBI) in the twin bill, helping Bethel earn the first two wins of his collegiate career.

With momentum, success came early in April with a win over Goldey-Beacom College (3-1 on April 3) and a four-game win streak that included a landslide victory over Caldwell University (20-6 on April 7), a sweep of Jefferson (W, 7-3, and W, 7-3) on April 11, and a one-sided triumph at Wilmington University (W, 15-5 on April 13). The Scarlet and Gold offense exploded in their second game versus the Cougars, totaling 20 hits and putting up crooked numbers in the first (2), fifth (5), seventh (6), and eighth (4) innings for the program's 200th victory. Just six days later, on April 13, Craig and Owens both homered twice in the Griffins' game-one success against the Wildcats.

The pinnacle of the month came on April 14, as all those in attendance at Latshaw-McCarthy Field enjoyed two thrilling comeback wins over the defending CACC Champions from Dominican College. With Magisterial District Judge Gregory L. Scott, Southeastern Pennsylvania Transportation Authority (SEPTA) Legislative Affairs Manager Rochelle Culbreath, and members of the Norristown Police Department on hand for Law Enforcement Appreciation and Alumni Day, the Griffins used a two-run seventh inning and a four-run eighth inning to cement a 9-6 comeback in the opener, then walked off with game two thanks to Owens' clutch 10th-inning double, 12-11. In game one, senior Patrick Kelley (Pipersville, Pa.) and Bethel grinded, limiting Dominican College to four earned runs on 13 hits and three walks; the latter earned the win with four innings of solid relief. Meanwhile, the heart of the order - Craig, Gilham, and Owens - combined to go 9-for-13 with five runs and five RBI. In the nightcap, Gilham was 2-for-3 with one run and two RBI, while Owens was 3-for-5 with two runs and three RBI. Sophomore Jerry Mangan (Wayne, Pa.) kept Chestnut Hill College in the affair and earned the win with six innings of brilliant relief; he held the Chargers to two runs - one earned - on five hits, while striking out five.

Over the next two weeks, the Griffins split CACC doubleheaders at Jefferson (L, 6-11, and W, 10-4, on April 17), versus Felician University (L, 2-3 (10), and W, 1-0, on April 20), and Goldey-Beacom College (L, 1-5, and W, 11-4, on April 24), before sweeps of USciences (W, 14-4, and W, 14-5, on April 27) and a 4-1, game-one, league victory over Bloomfield College on Saturday, April 28 (W, 4-1, and W, 8-3), qualified Chestnut Hill College for their eighth CACC Baseball Championship Tournament appearance in the last nine seasons. The whirlwind concluded with a split at Post University (W, 16-5, and L, 3-5, on May 1) - that landed the Griffins as the #3 seed in CACC South Division - and a 13-5 non-conference triumph over Kutztown University on May 2. The Scarlet and Gold dominated the opener against the Eagles, using multiple hit performances from Craig (2-for-4), Gilham (2-for-5), freshman right fielder Sam Barletta (Royersford, Pa.) (2-for-3), and sophomore catcher Thomas Spratt (Doylestown, Pa.) (2-for-4) to bury the Eagles by a 16-5 final. Unfortunately, the Scarlet and Gold got revenge in the nightcap, 5-3, tempering the Griffin bats to spoil a record, 14-strikeout performance from freshman Thomas Hughes (Phoenixville, Pa.). The first inning set the tone for the CACC Opening Round contest at #2N Dominican College as the Chargers used a seven-run, first at-bat to put Chestnut Hill College behind early in an eventual 15-2 final. Craig and Owens both homered and freshman third baseman Jared Healey (Philadelphia, Pa.) went 3-for-4, but the Chargers earned the right to advance to the double-elimination portion of the CACC Baseball Championship Tournament with a 22-hit barrage.

Offensively, the Griffins set single-season, program marks in batting average (.291, 406-for-1,393), on-base percentage (.389), slugging (.421), stolen base percentage (.832, 143-for-172), triples (26), total bases (587), and sacrifice flies (29). Craig's credentials qualified him as a finalist for the HERO SPORTS DII Baseball Player of the Year. The 2018 All-CACC First Team shortstop (All-CACC Second Team in 2015 (2B), 2016 (2B), and 2017 (SS)) - orchestrated the greatest offensive season in Chestnut Hill College history with single-season records in hits (60), runs (53), triples (11), total bases (104), slugging (.698), on-base percentage (.520), and stolen bases (47-of-48, .979), with his totals in triples and stolen bases currently leading the National Collegiate Athletic Association (NCAA) Division II. He tied Dan Ethernott '11 for the program's single-season batting average mark (.403) and matched his own single-season walk record (38), which he set last season (2017). Additionally, his triples, stolen bases, and on-base percentage topped the CACC this year, a season in which he was named the league Player of the Week on three occasions (5/1, 4/16, 3/13) and earned Weekly Honor Roll recognition three times (5/7, 4/9, 3/5). As the Griffins' shortstop, he captained one of the league's top defenses with a .971 fielding percentage (209 total chances, 70 putouts, 6 errors) and a league-high 133 assists. Craig recorded the 150th hit of his collegiate career in a 7-3 win over Jefferson on April 11, was named the NCBWA Division II Hitter of the Week on April 17, and reached base in his last 51 games. He was honored with his second straight Baseball Most Valuable Player (MVP) title and the Male Athletic Director's Award Chestnut Hill College Athletics Award Reception and finished his career second all-time in hits (181) and first all-time in games played (172), games started (169), runs scored (155), triples (19), walks (129), stolen bases (98), and assists (454).
