IN THE SUPREME COURT OF PENNSYLVANIA

325, 327, AND 328 OF THE
PENNSYLVANIA RULES OF DISCIPLINARY ENFORCEMENT

ORDER

PER CURIAM

AND NOW, this 7th day of October, 2025, upon the recommendation of the Disciplinary Board of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania; which followed the proposal to amend Pa.R.D.E. 321, 322, 324, 325, 327, and 328, having been published for comment in the Pennsylvania Bulletin, 53 Pa.B. 7356 (December 2, 2023):
IT IS ORDERED pursuant to Article V, Section 10 of the Constitution of Pennsylvania that Rules 321, 322, 324, 325, 327, and 328 of the Rules of Disciplinary Enforcement are amended in the attached form.

This ORDER shall be processed in accordance with Pa.R.J.A. 103(b) and shall be effective in 30 days.
Justice Brobson notes his dissent with respect to the amendment to Rule 322(d).
Additions to the rules are shown in bold and are underlined.
Deletions from the rules are shown in bold and brackets.

Pennsylvania Rules of Disciplinary Enforcement
CONSERVATORS FOR INTERESTS OF CLIENTS
Rule 321. Appointment of conservator to protect interests of clients of absent attorney.

(a) Application. Upon application of Disciplinary Counsel or any other interested person with the written concurrence of Disciplinary Counsel, the president judge of a court of common pleas shall have the power to appoint one or more eligible persons to act as conservators of the affairs of an attorney or formerly admitted attorney if:
(1) the attorney maintains or has maintained an office for the practice of law within the judicial district; and
(2) any of the following applies:
(i) the attorney is made the subject of an order under Enforcement Rule 208(f) (relating to emergency interim suspension orders and related matters); or
(ii) the president judge of the court of common pleas pursuant to Enforcement Rule 217(g) (relating to formerly admitted attorneys) by order directs Disciplinary Counsel to file an application under this rule; or
(iii) the attorney abandons his or her practice, disappears, dies or is transferred to disability inactive status; and
(3) no partner or other responsible successor to the practice of the attorney is known to exist.

(b) Service. A copy of the application for appointment of a conservator under this rule shall be personally served upon the absent attorney or the personal representative or guardian of the estate of a deceased or incompetent absent attorney. If personal service cannot be obtained, then a copy of the application shall be served in the manner prescribed by Enforcement Rule 212 (relating to substituted service).

(c) Hearing. The president judge of the court of common pleas shall conduct a hearing on the application no later than seven days after the filing of the application. At the hearing the applicant shall have both the burden of production and the burden of persuading the court by the preponderance of the credible evidence that grounds exist for appointment of a conservator. —

(d) Order. Within three days after the conclusion of the hearing on the application, the president judge shall enter an order either granting or denying the application. The order shall contain findings of fact and a statement of the grounds upon which the order is based. The appointing court may adopt, as its findings of fact and statement of grounds, some or all of the allegations of the application, in which case the appointing court must attach the application to the appointing order. If no appearance has been entered on behalf of the absent attorney, a copy of the order shall be served upon the absent attorney in the manner prescribed by [S]subdivision (b) of this rule.

(e) Qualifications of conservator. The conservator or conservators shall be appointed by the president judge, from among members of the bar of this Commonwealth, subject to the following:

(1) non-disciplinary counsel conservators:
(i) shall not represent any party who is adverse to any known client of the absent attorney; and
(ii) shall have no adverse interest or adverse relationship with the absent attorney or his or her estate.
Note: Nothing in the Rules of Professional Conduct relating to conflict of interest, confidentiality, or any other provision, shall prevent the Office of Disciplinary Counsel from serving as conservator, and from subsequently pursuing an investigation, and disciplinary prosecution of the absent attorney, based upon information gathered during the course of Disciplinary Counsel’s service as conservator.

(f) Statutes of limitations and time for appeal. The filing by Disciplinary Counsel or any other interested person of an application for the appointment of a conservator under these rules shall be deemed for the purposes of any statute of limitations or limitation on time for appeal as the filing in the court of common pleas or other proper court or magisterial district court of this Commonwealth on behalf of every client of the absent attorney of a complaint or other proper process commencing any action, proceeding, appeal or other matter arguably suggested by any information appearing in the files of the absent attorney if:
(1) the application for appointment of a conservator is granted, and

(2) substitute counsel actually files an appropriate document in a court or magisterial district court within 30 days after executing a receipt for the file relating to the matter. Note: Under 42 Pa.C.S. § 5503(b) (relating to implementing court rules) the Supreme Court may define by rule the document which when filed constitutes the commencement of a matter for purposes of Chapter 55 of the Judicial Code (relating to limitation of time). Thus the application by Disciplinary Counsel under this rule is an omnibus pleading which stays the running of all statutes of limitations and appeal times pending a 30day review of the files of the absent attorney.
(g) Automatic stay. The filing by Disciplinary Counsel or any other interested person of an application for the appointment of a conservator under these rules shall operate as an automatic stay of all pending legal or administrative proceedings in this Commonwealth where the absent attorney is counsel of record until the earliest of such time as:
(1) the application for appointment of a conservator is denied;
(2) the conservator is discharged;
(3) the court, tribunal, magisterial district court or other government unit in which a matter is pending orders that the stay be lifted; or

(4) 30 days after the court, tribunal, magisterial district court or other government unit in which a matter is pending is notified that substitute counsel has been retained.

(h) As used in this rule, the term “government unit” has the meaning set forth in 42 Pa.C.S. § 102 (relating to definitions).

Note: Under 42 Pa.C.S. § 5503(b) (relating to implementing court rules) the Supreme Court may define by rule the document which when filed constitutes the commencement of a matter for purposes of Chapter 55 of the Judicial Code (relating to limitation of time). Thus the application by Disciplinary Counsel under this rule is an omnibus pleading which stays the running of all statutes of limitations and appeal times pending a 30day review of the files of the absent attorney.

Rule 322. Duties of conservator.

(a) Possession of files; warrants. The conservator shall take immediate possession of all files of the absent attorney. If such possession cannot be obtained peaceably, the conservator shall apply to the appointing court for issuance of a warrant authorizing seizure of the files. Probable cause for issuance of such a warrant shall be an affidavit executed by the conservator reciting the existence of the conservatorship and the fact that the persons in control of the premises where the files are or may be located will not consent to a search for them or their removal or other facts showing that the files cannot be obtained without the use of the process of the court.

(b) Inventory. The conservator shall make a written inventory of all files taken into his or her possession.

(c)(1) Identification of clients. The conservator shall make a reasonable effort to identify all clients of the absent attorney whose files were opened within five (5) years of the appointment of the conservator, regardless of whether the case is active or not, and a reasonable effort to identify all clients whose cases are active, regardless of the age of the file. The conservator shall send all such clients, and former clients, written notice of the appointment of a conservator, the grounds which required such appointment, and the possible need of the clients to obtain substitute counsel. All such notices shall include the name, address and telephone number of any lawyer referral service or similar agency available to assist in the location of substitute counsel. The conservator shall, if necessary, send a second written notice to all clients of the absent attorney whose files appear to be active.

(2) Notice to clients. All clients whose files are identified by the conservator as both inactive and older than five (5) years shall be given notice by publication of the appointment of a conservator, the grounds which required such appointment, and the possible need of the clients to obtain substitute counsel. All such notices shall include the name, address and telephone number of any lawyer referral service or similar agency available to assist in the location of substitute counsel. The specific method of publication shall be approved by the appointing court, as to both the method, and duration, of publication, although at minimum a notice shall appear on one day in each of a newspaper of general circulation and the legal journal in the county in which the absent attorney maintained a principal office. The conservator shall deliver proofs of publication to the appointing court at the time of filing the application for discharge.

(3) Return and destruction of files. A file may be returned to a client upon the execution of a written receipt, or released to substitute counsel upon the request of the client and execution of a written receipt by such counsel. The conservator shall [deliver all such receipts to the appointing court at the time of filing the application for discharge]maintain an electronic record of all receipts. On approval by the appointing court of the application for discharge, all files remaining in the possession of the conservator shall be destroyed by the conservator in a secure manner which protects the confidentiality of the files.

(d) Representation prohibited during conservatorship. Until the conservatorship is terminated, [N]neither the conservator nor any partner, associate or other lawyer practicing in association with the conservator shall represent any of the absent attorney’s clients[:

Any petition filed under this subsection shall be served by publication, the specific method and duration of which shall be approved by the appointing court.

The appointing court shall have the power, upon application of the conservator and for good cause, to [extend the appointment for an additional three months] grant one or more extensions of the appointment, each extension not to exceed six months. - (b) Expenses. The necessary expenses (including, but not limited to, the fees and expenses of certified public accountant engaged pursuant to Enforcement Rule 324(c)) and any compensation of a conservator or any attendant staff shall, if possible, be paid by the absent attorney or his or her estate. Any expenses and any compensation of the conservator that are not reimbursed to the Board shall be paid as a cost of disciplinary administration and enforcement. Minor Court Rules Committee

PUBLICATION REPORT

Proposed Amendment of Pa.R.Civ.P.M.D.J. 519.1

The Minor Court Rules Committee (“Committee”) is considering proposing to the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania the amendment of Pa.R.Civ.P.M.D.J. 519.1, pertaining to a determination of abandonment of a manufactured home.

Background

The Manufactured Home Community Rights Act (“MHCRA”), 68 P.S. §§ 398.1 – 398.17, includes provisions for a determination of abandonment of a manufactured home located in a manufactured home community by a magisterial district court. See 68P.S. § 398.10.1.Pa.R.Civ.P.M.D.J. 519.1 was adopted by the Court to provide a procedural mechanism for such determinations. See 44 Pa.B.14 (January 4, 2014). A determination that a manufactured home has been abandoned means the manufactured home community owner or operator may act with respect to the abandoned manufactured home including, but not limited to, entering and securing the manufactured home, disconnecting it from utilities, and disposing of property subject to certain restrictions. See 68 P.S. § 398.10.2(a). Notably, § 398.10.1 requires judgment and execution of an order of possession for the manufactured home space upon which the manufactured home is located, rather than for the manufactured home itself.

The Committee received a request to review Pa.R.Civ.P.M.D.J. 519.1 for conformity with § 398.10.1. Specifically, it was noted that Rule 519.1 currently permits the determination of abandonment proceeding to occur at the same time as the hearing for the recovery of real property. See Pa.R. Civ.P.M.D.J.519.1B. In contrast, § 398.10.1 provides that a “lessee or resident” of a manufactured home community, i.e., tenant, will be deemed to have abandoned his or her manufactured home and the personal property within in one of two ways. First, the determination of abandonment may be made via judicial process, which includes: (1) entry of a judgment in favor of the “community owner or operator,” i.e., landlord, of the manufactured home space where the manufactured home is located; (2) the execution of an order for possession on the judgment; and (3) a determination by the magisterial district court that the home and property has been abandoned. See 68 P.S. § 398.10.1(a)(1). Alternatively, the tenant may “voluntarily” abandon the manufactured home by making a written statement that the tenant has “physically or permanently vacated the home, does not intend to return to it, and has given up all further rights or ownership interest.” Id. at (a)(2).

In MHCRA, a “lessee” or “resident” mean a person who rents a manufactured home space from a lessor pursuant to the terms of a lease or an owner of a manufactured home who leases or rents space in a manufactured home community, respectively. See 68 P.S. § 398.2. Likewise, a “manufactured home community owner or “community owner” or a “manufactured home community operator or community operator” means a person or entity that owns a manufactured home community or a person or entity that conducts the operations of a manufactured home community on behalf of and as the agent of the community owner. Id. The Committee does not anticipate recommending amendments to modify the references to landlord and tenant in the rule to maintain consistency with other procedural rules pertaining to landlord-tenant matters and appeals.

Proposed Rules Changes

After comparing the statute and the current rule, the Committee concluded that Rule 519.1 would benefit from amendments to conform it with §398.10.1(a)(1). Because the execution on an order for possession is a component of a determination of abandonment, it seems premature for the landlord to obtain a determination of abandonment for the manufactured home without retaking, via execution, possession of the manufactured home community space on which the manufactured home is located. In other words, because a judgment for possession and execution on the judgment are necessary elements of a determination of abandonment, it is not possible to hold the hearing for possession and the determination of abandonment concurrently. Therefore, proposed Pa.R.Civ.P.M.D.J. 519.1(a)(1) requires the landlord to attach a copy of the judgment for possession entered by the magisterial district judge in favor of the landlord together with proof of the execution of an order for possession made on the judgment.

The Committee also observed that current Pa.R.Civ.P.M.D.J. 519.1, as drafted, does not address the concept of voluntary abandonment. While § 398.10.1 does not explicitly require a memorialization of a voluntary abandonment by the magisterial district court, the Committee believes it may be useful to incorporate it in the rule to provide further documentation for the Pennsylvania Department of Transportation and other entities that may be involved after the determination of abandonment is made. See, e.g., 68 P.S. § 398.10.2(f)(1) (pertaining to the sale of a manufactured home following a determination of abandonment). This is reflected in proposed Pa.R.Civ.P.M.D.J. 519.1(a)(2), which permits the landlord to provide the tenant’s written statement of abandonment with the request for a determination of abandonment hearing.

To accurately reflect the terminology of MHCRA, cross-references to 68P.S. § 398.2 were added to the commentary regarding the use of the terms “landlord” and “tenant” in Rule 519.1. The new commentary also includes a definition of “manufactured home space.”

The Committee is also considering deleting the phrase “parties in interest” in favor of a reference to the “parties.” The phrase “parties in interest” appears misplaced in this rule because there is no opportunity for a such a person or entity to raise a claim in the proceeding. The Committee specifically invites comments regarding this proposed change.

Finally, stylistic changes were made throughout the rule, including, but not limited to, the addition of subdivision titles.

The Committee welcomes all comments, concerns, and suggestions regarding this proposal.
